

VACATIONING AT BALI BEACH – JIMBARAN BAY

Bali is well known as a “paradise island”; a land of a thousand gods, a thousand temples, and a thousand dances. It is located on the Pacific Ocean, just below the equatorial line in the heart of Indonesia and is considered to be the most attractive island in the region. A vibrant culture, unique arts and ceremonies, a friendly people and scenic beauty make Bali an island almost unreal in today's changing world – and subsequently the main destination for pleasure tourists to Indonesia. Bali's international airport, Ngurah Rai, is the nation's eastern gateway, served by numerous international airlines and charter flights.

DIRECTIONS

By Air

Ngurah Rai International airport at Denpasar is approximately 4km from the resort and the journey takes approx. 10 minutes.

By Road

Take the main bypass road from the airport south towards Nusa Dua. Look out for a large sign on the right for the Intercontinental Hotel. You need to turn right to Jimbaran Bay by doing a u-turn on the bypass road and then turning left to take you to Jimbaran's main road. Once on this main road, carry on until you see the Intercontinental Hotel on your right. The Royal Bali Beach Club is on your left, directly opposite the Intercontinental.

Airport Transfer

Upon request, the resort staff can arrange airport transfers. You will be met at the airport by one of the resort's Guest Relations Officers who will arrange for you to be escorted to the resort. Please contact the resort directly to make these arrangements and obtain cost involved.
