

VACATIONING AT BURN PARK

The first thing you notice about Burn Park when you arrive is the wide-open spaces. Since the initial conversion during the 1980's from the original 200 year-old farm buildings, the holiday village has grown steadily, while retaining its essential character. Strolling along its pathways is just like walking through your own private holiday village, with nothing to disturb the rural peace and tranquility. All of the 34 luxury cottages and apartments have been individually designed to blend in with the natural surroundings, and are constructed from traditional Cornish building materials. Each of the small blocks stands within its own well-landscaped area, with each unit enjoying a high degree of privacy from its neighbours. Set in 45 acres of delightful North Cornwall countryside, close to Bude Bay, Burn Park features a wide range of indoor and outdoor leisure facilities and is in an ideal position to explore all the delights of the north coasts of Cornwall and Devon.
