

VACATIONING WITH GEO AT FOREST HILLS

Perched like a fairytale castle on one the foothills of the Sierra de Ronda mountain range, Forest Hills offers spectacular views of the Mediterranean, the mountains, Gibraltar and the North African hills. This resort is conveniently located near sandy beaches and the pretty town of Estepona. During the summer, the region typically receives up to 14 hours of sunshine a day, while the winter months tend to offer mild temperatures with plenty of warmth. All around, you will experience breathtaking mountain and coastline views and an abundance of exciting water and land excursions. Western Andalusia is a truly fabulous area to visit. Being less developed than the rest of the Costa del Sol, it is famous for its many attractive whitewashed mountain villages and miles of uncrowded beaches along the Mediterranean Sea.

DIRECTIONS

Leaving the airport terminal, follow the only exit road to the roundabout – keep in the right hand lane (do not go over the bridge) and go straight ahead, passing the San Miguel Brewery on the right. Follow the directions to E.15/N340 – Codiz, Marbella.

Take the turning on the right, just past a large BMW showroom signposted E.15/N340 Benalmodena/Algerciros. Continue on the N340 until you reach the new toll motorway E.15. You will have to pay a toll – the first toll is 465 pts and the second in 300 pts (approx $7 US in total). This leg of the journey will take approx. 30 minutes. Approximately 15 minutes after the first toll (you will be approaching the second toll) stay to the left – do NOT go into the tunnel.

(If you do go into the tunnel, follow the coast road (N340) for approx 20 minutes – the Kempinski hotel will be on your left. Go past the Kempinski and take the next exit. Turn around and head back towards the Kempinski and proceed using the directions that follow!)

When you come to the end of the toll road, you will be close to Estepona. (Brace yourself, because now the real fun begins!)

Take the slip road to the right Estepona (Este), (Junction 157) sign posted “N340 – Estepona/Marbella” in the direction of Malaga. (Don't worry – you are on the right road.)

You will pass Estepona on your right. After approx 3 km, look for the Kempinski Hotel (a large terra cotta hotel on the right hand side).

the roundabout, go straight on and follow the road under the motorway, until you come to a fork in the road.

Take the right hand fork under the archway, and follow to a small roundabout. Carry straight on over the roundabout. You will then come to a five way junction with the turn for the tennis club directly in front of you. Turn immediately right and follow up the hill keeping to the right – you will see the resort right in front of you.
