TRANSPORATION OPTIONS

Travelling by bus is reasonably comfortable and inexpensive, yet local services can be infrequent by day and non-existent at night. Trains are comfortable and one of country's little-known gems. Car rental is available to those 21 years and older.

ACTIVITIES & EXCURSIONS

The onsite staff will be happy to help arrange tours and excursions.

Dining is taken quite seriously in Portugal, and not surprisingly, seafood is a staple. Freshly caught lobster, crab, shrimps, and tuna are prepared in innumerable ways. Supermarkets are open daily and offer a wide range of central European and local products. Sardines and Chicken Piri-Piri are among the country's specialties. Local wines are quite good and relatively inexpensive.

The Algarve is a year round Mecca for golfer. It is highly recommended that you book your tee times in advance.
