

VACATIONING AT MARINA DEL SOL

The region of Costa del Sol is located on the southern Mediterranean coast of Spain. This magnificent area offers extensive beaches, secluded coves, impressive cliffs, and charming mountain villages. A mild year round temperature and minimal precipitation makes this an ideal vacation destination for those looking to experience a stunning natural environment and participate in a number of exciting activities and attractions. Your time will be spent visiting local theme and water parks, tasting country wines and traditional dishes, lounging on the beaches, and exploring the nearby towns and their fascinating street markets.
