

VACATIONING AT PARADISE BEACH VILLAS

Situated just 15 miles off the northern coast of Venezuela and well below the hurricane belt, Aruba offers year round sunshine and an average temperature of 28°C / 82°F. The diverse landscape is truly stunning! The south and west coasts are lined with white sandy beaches while the northeast Atlantic coast offers rugged wild terrain. As you move inland the scenery becomes more desert-like with topography and vegetation that is unique to the Caribbean. Considerable effort has gone into preserving and enhancing the Aruba's natural history and culture. This is a vacation destination where you can quietly take pleasure in one of the secluded beaches or wander on your own through the countryside. Of course if you prefer to stay active, an endless supply of sporting activities is readily available to you as well as highly regarded restaurants, casinos, discotheques, and festivals.

Relax on a lounge chair by the pool or enjoy a tropical drink by the pool bar. However you choose to spend your week, it will always be a delight to return to your exclusive hideaway at the Paradise Beach Villas. Far enough away from home to have some adventure but small and friendly enough to feel like you are coming home.
